upon the position that Mr. method of campaigning was ineffective and that there had been no necessity for Mr. Mears ever making a speech. Not only is Democratic party in Northampton county, one who has been officially connected with the Democratic party in that county years (and is now so connected) that Mr. Mears had never made a political speech in any canvass so far as he knew. But, all this aside, we feel sure Mr, Mears is a man of character and do not wish to detract from him in any way. However, as we say, we feel that! the signs of the times pointing as of Mr. Jones, are pointing in the right direction. We do not believe Mr. Mears' warmest admirers can claim for him character higher nor ability as great political experiences are not to he compared with those of the distinguished Representative.
